COMMITTEE INVOLVEMENT

Please indicate your interest in serving on any of the following committees by checking the appropriate line. Committee involvement is a great way to meet fellow young lawyers while serving the community and the profession. Your participation is always appreciated.

- Community Service: This committee coordinates the community service-oriented projects to benefit various aspects of the Tarrant County community such as serving at the Tarrant Area Food Bank, the Ronald McDonald House, Cook Children's Hospital, and Fort Worth ISD students.
- Professional Development: This committee coordinates events to provide educational and professional growth opportunities to members such as organizing continuing legal education (CLE) events, providing support and mentorship to local law students, and helping recent law graduates assimilate to the local legal community.
- Golf Tournament: This committee organizes the annual charity golf tournament, including coordinating the location, rules, prizes and refreshments.
- Spring Fiesta: This committee coordinates the annual Spring Fiesta fund raising event held at Joe T. Garcia's, including sponsorship solicitation, raffle prizes, and recognition ceremony.
- Social Activities and Networking: This committee organizes social events and wellness activities for TCYLA such as Fall Fete, monthly happy hours, outdoor recreation, and family focused events.

Make check payable to TARRANT COUNTY YOUNG LAWYERS ASSOCIATION or TCYLA, and mail or fax this application with payment to TCYLA, 1315 Calhoun Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76102.
